

Review Questions (4)

1. What system do we use to determine what is 'good' science?
2. What are the five steps in adaptive management?
3. Give e reasons why forestry should be science based?
4. What is a hypothesis?
5. Should science alone direct a decision?
6. Give two examples of assumptions in modelling.
7. Is good science always appropriate science?
8. Is basing a decision on anecdotal evidence science based?
9. What are Pinchot's 3 principles of conservation?
10. Did Pinchot think that conservation was simple or complex?
11. What did Pinchot consider the first duty of the present generation?
12. Did Pinchot believe that forest fires were unstoppable?
13. Finish this famous quote: "Conservation means the greatest good to ...".
14. Pinchot was the first head of what organization?
15. Was Leopold younger or older than Pinchot?
16. In what type of forest did Leopold first work?
17. Did Leopold think that more education was enough to solve the problem?
18. Do all biotic communities have value? What do you mean by this?